

Woodbridge Public Library

1 George Frederick Plaza Woodbridge NJ 07095 732-634-4450

November 7, 2016

Press Release

For Immediate Release

Contact: April Kane
akane@woodbridgelibrary.org
(732) 634-4450, x7128

Remembering Pearl Harbor: Songs and Letters of WORLD WAR II

Join us for a special Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day event at the Woodbridge Main Library on Wednesday, December 7 at 7:00 pm. Members of the Traveling Literary Theater will present a moving tribute to the resiliency of the human spirit, and pay homage to the men and women who struggled, fought, lived and died during the tragic years from 1939-1945.

Seasoned professional actors in military costume will share personal letters, quotes and accounts of the war. International jazz singer, Maggie Worsdale, will perform a number of songs that best represent the feeling and mood of the era. This performance is a fitting and uplifting tribute to the memory of those who made up what is now called "the greatest generation."

Musical selections include: Don't Sit Under the Apple Tree, Taking a Chance on Love, I'll Be Home for Christmas, The White Cliffs of Dover, I'll Be Seeing You.

For more information on the production please see <http://www.travelingliterarytheater.com/>

The Woodbridge Main Library is located at 1 George Frederick Plaza, Woodbridge. This presentation is free and open to all.

Remembering Pearl Harbor:

Songs and Letters of World War II

Woodbridge
Main Library
Wednesday, Dec. 7, 2016
7:00 PM

A free performance by members of the Traveling Literary Theater featuring jazz singer Maggie Worsdale!