DAVE & BUSTER'S TO OPEN AT WOODBRIDGE CENTER

WOODBIDGE, NJ (February 8, 2017) – Woodbridge Township Mayor John E. McCormac announced today that Dave & Buster's will be opening at Woodbridge Center in November 2017.

“The announcement that the very first Dave & Buster's in New Jersey is set to arrive at Woodbridge Center represents a milestone in the continuing development of Woodbridge Township,” said Mayor John E. McCormac. “Woodbridge Township has quickly become a hub of new, exciting, innovative and casual dining restaurants and hospitality and we are thrilled to have Dave & Buster's joining the Woodbridge Township hospitality community. Woodbridge Center is an integral part of the vibrancy of our community and their continued success helps build positive momentum for our entire area. The arrival of Dave & Buster's solidifies Woodbridge Township as the innovative and dynamic destination to explore entertainment, dining and shopping well into the future.”

“As the leading retail real estate property for the Woodbridge community, we are always focused on evolving to deliver key brands, dining and experiences that our shoppers have come to expect from us,” said Amy Bellisano, Sr. General Manager of Woodbridge Center. “We are delighted to introduce Dave & Buster's to our regional shopping center.”

Construction for Dave & Buster's will begin this month in the space previously occupied by the upper level Sears wing retailers that have now been relocated elsewhere in the center. The entertainment destination will be approximately 34,000 square feet.
